Jim Kuchler is an award winning, active, outdoor photographer and interpretive image maker.

The images Jim creates feature outdoor adventure, travel, landscapes, nature, wildlife, outdoor sporting, tourism and corporate events. He has traveled the Mideast, Europe, eastern Canada, New Zealand, Iceland, Alaska and the contiguous US.

His passion for photography started in the 1970s using his father's vintage SLR camera and whatever equipment he could get his hands on. He's been in the digital photography world for 15 years.

Jim's photographic knowledge and talent has grown through travel workshops, classroom lecture, course work, constant reading, study and a lifetime of field exposure. Jim has a master's degree in engineering management and a bachelor's degree in business and communication. Jim is an accomplished leader, facilitator and instructor with an extensive business background.

He is a member of American Society of Media Photographers, Photo Midwest, Photographic Society of America and local photography clubs.
